"I recently bought a 2-family in Somerville and had been using the previous owner's oil company, [redacted]. Initially the customer service people were helpful, but then I called them when my tanks were low. They said they couldn't get there for up to 5 days. I decided to try [redacted]. The person I spoke to connected me to Terry, the sales rep. He couldn't have been more professional and he told me the oil would be there the next day. He came out personally—while there was 6 feet of snow on the ground—and helped. I shoveled the pipes out and the oil was delivered that very afternoon." —Lisa D., Cambridge, MA
